

Where Are YOU Going To Spend Eternity?

This question is very important to many people! And the truth of the matter is that nobody KNOWS the answer!

The Christians teach that if you believe as they do, you will go to Heaven and if you don't believe as they do you will go to Hell. However, there is much discord between the various Christian sects as to exactly what is required for a pass to Heaven! Not only that, the Bible itself is painfully ambiguous about this key question. For example, Mark 16:16 along with many other Bible verses teaches that faith in Jesus and being baptized will save your soul, while Matthew 5:20 and, again, many other Bible verses, require good works and righteousness!

The Muslims teach the same thing, if you believe as they do you will go to Heaven, if you don't you will go to Hell. Again, there is much dissent between the various Muslim sects as to the exact requirements for a pass to Paradise!

One thing all the "revealed" religions agree on is that those of the other "revealed" religions go to Hell!

Contrary to the complicated man-made "revealed" religions, Deism is simple and honest. Deism teaches that nobody KNOWS what, if anything, happens to us after our body dies. The "revealed" religionists BELIEVE they know, but belief is not knowledge. Deism, being a natural religion/philosophy, teaches us to rely on our God-given reason to sustain our belief in God and to direct our lives. Using God's gift of reason, we KNOW that after our body dies our body remains dead regardless of what the "revealed" religions teach. Regarding the possibility of a continuation of consciousness of existence, Deists are free to believe as their reason directs. There is no dogma in Deism. As a Deist, I completely trust God as my Creator and friend and I don't worry about it. Nature's God has it squared away regardless of if there is a continuation of the individual's existence or not.

If you're more interested in truth than in empty promises, if you look at the order of the Universe and feel a deep awe and appreciation, if you believe the order and design found throughout Nature point to Nature's God, you are a Deist!
