

Where Are They Now???

The Bible says in Matthew 27:52-53 that when Jesus died, “The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus’ resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many people.”

If this is true, what happened to them? Are they still alive on Earth somewhere? Did they fly up into heaven with Jesus? Did they die again???

This Biblical version of night of the living dead goes strongly against our God-given reason! There is absolutely no record made of it by the Romans who ruled at that time in Palestine. Surely, if the dead were rising from their graves, hanging out in the cemetery for three days, and then walking into Jerusalem appearing to many, there would have to be some historic record of this amazing event, other than the unreasonable claim made of it in just one of the Gospels!

If this farcical Bible myth makes you wonder about the truthfulness of the Bible, maybe you’re ready to unite your God-given reason to your belief in God. If Nature and the order found throughout Nature makes you believe there is a Designer of Nature’s design, or Nature’s God, you are a Deist!
